

I am strongly opposed to the weakening of the laws concerning my telephone privacy. A past business transaction does not give a corporation/person the right to use my private information to contact me via phone.